Three days is a very short time in which to cure a bad case of rheumatism; but it can be done, if the proper treatment is adopted, as will be seen by the following from James Lambert, of New Brunswick, Ill. "I was badly afflicted with rheumatism in the hips and legs, when I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It cured me in three days. I am all right to-day, and would insist on every one who is afflicted with that terrible disease, to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and get well at once." For sale by H. B. Garner.

Henderson Journal: The last pile on the O. V. incline at Evansville was driven Saturday. The company is almost ready to begin transferring and barring that a thick sediment of mud has been deposited on the incline and everything is ready for the transfer load. A dredging boat has been sent for to clear away this substance, and this will occasion another delay to the road.
The directors of the State Line road met in Henderson Saturday and agreed "that the county of Warren be released from the subscription heretofore made or agreed to be made to the capital stock of the Henderson State Line Railroad Co., of $200,000, on condition she subscribe the same amount to the capital stock of the Bowling Green, Hartford & Ohio River Railroad Company." This means that an attempt will be made to build the road to Owensboro.

This will be increased to $45,000 and the amount distributed between the insurance agencies of this place.
What a pity it is that there is not a lot centrally located on which to locate the fountain, the money for which was willed to the city by the late Mrs. Roach. A nice little park might be laid out, the fountain located in the center, shade trees planted and the plot sown in grass, thereby furnishing a place to sit in the warm weather and enjoy the evening. As the location is left to the city, won't some of our wealthy citizens step forward and donate the lot, and thereby win the gratitude of all?
The L. & N. is nothing if not modest. Her proposition submitted to the council at its meeting Tuesday asking that the city force the owners of warehouses fronting the railroad to remove the platforms because the railroad was inconvenient, was a great scheme and worthy of the source from which it emanated. What has the L. & N. done for Hopkinsville that the latter should extend any favors? After her persistent opposition to every progressive idea put forth by the city how can she expect any favors at the hands of the city authorities.
MEANS BUSINESS.
Earlington Wants to be the Capital of Hopkins County.
Earlington is very anxious to become the capital of Hopkins county. That her citizens are in earnest is evidenced from the offer they make, which is given by a correspondent.
The old court-house is a disgrace to Hopkins county. Why tax the farmers whose taxes can get a $40,000 building without it? Hurd's plan can get it. It. Bernard Coal Co. $20,000. Private subscription $40,000; Earlington bonds $20,000, which can be payable in twenty years. The bonds can be placed at Harry Hanson and Moss, of New York.
Protracted Meeting.
On Saturday night, May 11th, Rev. J. C. Tate, pastor of the Newstead Presbyterian church, will begin a protracted service at that place, in which he will be assisted by the Synodical Evangelists, Messrs. Evans and Hopper. It will be remembered that about five years since these gentlemen assisted Mr. Tate in like service here, which resulted in large conversions, not to the Presbyterian church only, but to most of the churches in the city, and the good people of the Newstead neighborhood have cause to hope that a like blessing will attend their ministrations at that place.
A Sacred Parson.
A queer case is reported from Ohio county. A couple wanting to marry sent for Rev. J. T. Henry, of that county, to perform the ceremony. He was a young man and had never officiated in a like capacity before, so was feeling rather awkward. Nevertheless after asking if all was ready, he walked into the house and squared himself for business. The couple started in, marching in regular order, and the spectacle so frightened him that he grabbed his hat and ran out of the room without performing the ceremony or giving a word of explanation. At last accounts the couple were unmarried and the minister had failed to show up.
Commissioner's Sale.
Master commissioner J. Burnett sold at auction before the court house this morning the following tracts of land: Fifty acres lying near Crofton, property of Mrs. Catherine Brown, sold to O. V. Brown, $100.

The meeting adjourned subject to the call of the chairman.
News has reached the city of the probable fatal shooting of a Miss Carter, near Scottsville, in Allen county, by a young man "who didn't know it was loaded" when he pointed a pistol at her. She is said to be a beautiful young girl, just budding into womanhood. What a pity it is that there is no punishment which can be meted out to such fools.
At Sam Hudson's distillery in Allen county, two men after drinking all the mean liquor they could hold got into a fight, and one barbed out his opponent, driver, nine times before they could be separated. The man will die. Barbee escaped.
Crittenden Springs will be opened on the 15th inst.

JUDGE LONG'S WILL.

The Bulk of His Estate Given to Elizabeth Henson.
The last will and testament of Judge A. V. Long was probated this morning. It was a month's trip west. Mr. Long left a large estate, which he bequeathed to his wife, Elizabeth Henson, and to his children. His gold watch and chain and all other personal articles in his possession at the time of his (the Judge's) death.
To Parthenia Leavell, col., as a reward for her faithful attention to him, he gives all of the furniture, including beds, bedding, carpets, and household goods in his room. He adds to this he gives her $500.
All the residue of the estate in addition to whatever kind of description he bequeathed to Elizabeth Henson, daughter of his old friend, Dr. Moses Steele, late of Trigg county, Ky.
A. H. Clark, of this city, is made executor without bond.
The will bears the date of December 10, 1888.
In a codicil dated April 13th, 1889, he bequeaths to Mrs. Kate Tandy two lots, 50 and 92, in Jessup's addition to the city.
The total value of the estate is about $4,000; of this sum about $3,000 goes to Elizabeth Henson.
TWO MEN SHOT.
White Caps Meet With a Warm Reception Near Wallonia.
A rumor reached this office yesterday of a little white cap expedition near Wallonia, Trigg county, which resulted seriously to two men. The Clarksville Progress has received a more extended account, which is as follows:
A few nights since Mr. Gray, who had been suspected of mistreating his wife, received a visit from two men who were shot by some of Gray's friends who were standing as pickets in the yard. A man named Ferguson received a shot of shot in his arm and another named Wilson was shot in the back. Ferguson's wounds were of such a nature that his arm had to be amputated yesterday.
It was maintained by the late Horace Greely, that "nothing succeeds like success." If this be true, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which is intended, especially for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough, and is undoubtedly the best and most reliable medicine in use for those diseases. It is decidedly a success. For sale by H. B. Garner.

Some of the young people from here attended the dedication at Crofton Sunday and enjoyed the day very much.
